

HAMPTON PHOEBUS AND OLD POINT.

MISS RUTH SCHMELZ BRIDE OF H. F. ELAM

Pretty Wedding Takes Place
at Home of Young Lady in Hampton.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season here took place at the home of Mr. George A. Schmeltz, East Queen street, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when his second daughter, Miss Ruth, became the bride of Mr. Harry F. Elam, of Northfork, W. Va. The ceremony, which was witnessed by a number of the friends of the couple, took place in the large parlors. The decorations were attractive. Rev. W. Mosby Seay, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church, performed the ceremony, and Mr. Schmeltz gave his daughter in marriage. Mr. John Drummond Fosque was the best man, while Mrs. Frank Lake attended her sister as matron of honor, and the Misses Hilda, Elsie and Nancy Schmeltz were the bridesmaids.

Owing to recent bereavement in the bride's family the wedding was a quiet affair.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served the wedding guests by the chef from Hotel Chamberlin.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Elam left on the Chesapeake & Ohio train for Charleston, W. Va., where they will visit the mother of the groom. They will later go to Northfork to take up their residence.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white silk, with veil, and carried a shower bouquet.

Mrs. Elam is a most attractive young girl, being the second daughter of Mr. G. A. Schmeltz, the Hampton and Newport News banker. She has traveled extensively and has been a strong worker in the Memorial Baptist church. Mr. Elam is the son of Colonel Thomas G. Elam, formerly editor of the Hampton Monitor, but now living in Roanoke. Mr. Elam is the representative of Armour & Company at Northfork.

The couple received a number of handsome and costly presents.

Among the out-of-town guests here were Mrs. H. W. Hicks, of Roanoke, sister of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. John Garland Pollard, of Richmond.

"What Symbols Should be Employed?"—Miss Lindsay and Miss von Schilling.

"The Purpose of Grading"—Mr. Paul S. Gilliam, of the High school.
